This page explains how Central Accord Pty Ltd uses cookies and similar technologies on this website.

It should be read together with our Privacy Policy, which explains how we collect, use, disclose, store and protect personal information.

What cookies are

Cookies are small text files or pieces of information placed on your device when you visit a website.

They can help a website recognise your device, remember settings, support website functionality and understand how the website is being used.

This page also covers similar technologies, including pixels, tags, scripts, local storage, session storage, device information and server logs.

How we use cookies

We may use cookies and similar technologies to:

operate and secure our website;

support website forms, enquiries and basic website functionality;

remember settings or preferences;

understand how visitors use our website;

measure website performance;

improve website content and user experience; and support communications, analytics or marketing activities, where used and appropriate.

Where information collected through cookies or similar technologies is personal information, we handle it in accordance with our Privacy Policy and applicable privacy laws.

Types of cookies we may use

Strictly necessary cookies

These cookies are needed for the website to work properly.

They may support security, page navigation, forms, session management and basic website functions.

If these cookies are disabled, parts of the website may not function correctly.

Analytics and performance cookies

These cookies help us understand how visitors use the website, which pages are visited and how the site can be improved.

Information collected through these cookies is generally used to understand website performance and improve content and usability.

Functionality cookies

These cookies help remember choices or preferences and support a more consistent website experience.

Some features may not work as intended if these cookies are blocked or deleted.

Marketing or advertising cookies

We may use marketing or advertising cookies if these tools are enabled on the website.

These cookies may help us understand the effectiveness of content or campaigns and provide more relevant information.

Third-party cookies and service providers

Some cookies or similar technologies may be set or processed by third-party service providers that help us operate, secure, analyse or improve our website.

These providers may include website hosting providers, website security providers, analytics providers, email or communication providers and other technology providers.

Third-party providers may process information in accordance with their own privacy and cookie notices.

Managing cookies

You can manage or disable cookies through your browser settings.

Most browsers allow you to block cookies, delete existing cookies or receive a warning before a cookie is stored. You may also be able to manage preferences through any cookie banner or settings tool made available on this website.

If cookies are disabled, some parts of the website may not function properly or your experience may be affected.

Personal information and our Privacy Policy

Information collected through cookies and similar technologies may include device information, browser information, IP address, pages visited, date and time of access, referring website and general website usage information.

In some cases, this information may identify you or be capable of identifying you when combined with other information.

For more information about how we collect, use, disclose, store and protect personal information, please read our Privacy Policy.

Overseas service providers

Some technology providers that support our website may store or process information in Australia or overseas.

Where personal information is disclosed overseas, we take reasonable steps to ensure that overseas recipients handle the information in accordance with applicable privacy requirements.

For more information, please read our Privacy Policy.

Changes to this page

We may update this page from time to time to reflect changes in our website, technology, service providers, legal requirements or business practices.

The latest version will be available on this website.
